All But Louisiana Senators to Be Pledged to Support Bill as Approved by Caucus

FREE SUGAR AND WOOL GO THROUGH SWEEPINGLY

Important Features of Bill Under Consideration by Caucus Today

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The Democratic senate caucus considering the tariff bill expects to make rapid progress from now on. It is probable that a resolution binding all Democratic senators except the two from Louisiana, who oppose free sugar, to support the bill as finally approved by the Democratic caucus will be adopted.

BIG MAJORITIES FOR BOTH FREE SUGAR AND FREE WOOL

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Free sugar in 1916 and free raw wool now are established in the tariff revision bill, having been approved late yesterday by the Democratic caucus of the Senate after a two days' fight.

The sugar schedule, as reported by the majority members of the finance committee and practically as it passed the House, was approved by a vote of 40 to 6. Free raw wool, as submitted by the majority and just as it passed the House, swept the Senate caucus by a vote of 41 to 6.

The six Democratic senators who voted against free sugar on the final vote approving the schedule, were Hitchcock, Nebraska; Newlands, Nevada; Randell and Thornton, Louisiana; Shafroth, Colorado; Walsh, Montana.

The six who opposed free raw wool to the end were Chamberlain of Oregon; Newlands, Nevada; Randell and Thornton, Louisiana; Shafroth and Walsh.

No attempt was made in the caucus to bind the members to the action of the caucus. The question will come up when the entire bill has been passed upon. Some members will fight it, but administration leaders said last night they believed only the two Louisiana senators would ask to be released from the caucus pledge if one is asked. The general opinion is that a binding resolution will be offered.

Carter of Hawaii today said: "I was followed by detectives and finally accused of being an 'insidious lobbyist.' I was dragged before the senate committee and grilled for three hours by a criminal lawyer because I sent an emissary from Hawaii to tell President Wilson what our situation would be if the duty on sugar is removed."

Afterwards Senator O'Gorman told Carter that to tell his experiences would be an "inexcusable discourtesy."

ARCHITECT FOR DUNNE SIGNS INSPECTION CHOSEN SUFFRAGE BILL

Frank Hudson of Los Angeles Arbitrator in Grand Opera House Matter

PARKINSON SECOND NAME IN THE HAT

Conference Last Night Resulted in Signing of Stipulation for Settlement

At noon today City Clerk J. C. Burke telephoned from Los Angeles saying that he had seen Architect Frank Hudson, and that Hudson had accepted employment as arbitrator and would be here next Monday to examine the Grand Opera House building.

Drawing a name from a hat, the conference of city trustees and Grand Opera House owner and lessee brought about the selection of Frank Hudson of Los Angeles as arbitrator. Second choice, determined by drawing the name from the hat, is John N. Parkinson.

When the meeting came to order last night City Clerk Burke read the stipulation as prepared by agreement between Attorney H. J. Forgy and City Attorney Heathman. Then came a discussion upon the terms named in the stipulation.

Trustee Alderman studied over the building ordinance for some time, having in mind the paragraph of the stipulation which said that the arbitrator should say what ought to be done to make the building comply with the ordinance. Then he said:

"Our ordinance is antiquated. In fact, we have no ordinance to touch theaters with a seating capacity of under 1000. This ordinance was taken bodily from the Los Angeles law some years ago. The Grand Opera House seats how many?"

"Um," said 599, but said that for the purposes of the arrangement he would agree that it holds 1006, which would put it in Class 5 of the building ordinance.

Attorney Forgy refused to allow any indefinite statements to go into the stipulation. He wanted to have something absolutely definite.

"A few minutes of the city trustees a few years back will show that the Grand Opera House was accepted by the city trustees," said Lutz. "It was entirely satisfactory. Now this present board has a different view. Let us have exactly to ordinance, and then there can be no further question, with an expert's statement as to its safety."

McGee showed that under the ordinance all public buildings should have a strength of 150 pounds per square foot.

After the city board had carried a motion accepting the agreement the conference turned to the selection of an arbitrator.

Trustee McPhee suggested as a fair, competent man the name of J. J. Backus, building inspector of Los Angeles.

Ulm immediately declined to accept Backus, saying that his training was such as to make him fight architects and builders and criticize them on every occasion.

Forgy and Ulm said they had no man in mind. Ulm called on Architect C. M. Jordan of Santa Ana to suggest an authority in Los Angeles. Jordan said that there are probably 100 men fully competent to be considered authorities. He suggested Hudson & Munsell, designers of the Los Angeles city hall. Ulm immediately said he was willing to accept Hudson. Then came a discussion of architects, in which considerable ignorance on the part of the interested parties in the standing of Los Angeles architects was displayed. C. D. Overshiner, who was present, suggested the name of J. N. Parkinson. It was finally agreed to put the names of Hudson and Parkinson into a hat and draw for a choice. Hudson's name was drawn first, making him first choice and Parkinson second.

The stipulation was then signed by the trustees, Ulm and Lutz, and Clerk Burke was instructed to go to Los Angeles today to employ Hudson.

The stipulation is to the effect that the architect shall make a thorough examination of the building as to its strength, exits, fire escapes, fire protection and as to whether or not it is in accordance with the city building ordinance.

JACKMAN MAKING FIGHT TO GET FREIGHT LINE BUILT BY P. E. TO WEST ORANGE

Asks Associated Chambers of Commerce to Join With Him in Protest to Railroad Commission

S. J. Jackman of North Main street has sent a protest to the State Railroad Commission against allowing the Pacific Electric a franchise for hauling freight on North Main street into the city of Santa Ana. Last night at the Associated Chambers of Commerce meeting at Fullerton Jackman urged that body to adopt a resolution of protest against the freight hauling proposal and in favor of Jackman's plan to have freight from Orange hauled to the West Orange depot. Jackman's proposal was referred to the railroad and transportation committee with power to act.

Jackman reviewed the situation thoroughly. He said that the Pacific Electric in building the extension to Orange will expect to eventually get a franchise from the city of Santa Ana for a spur track off Main street to the Southern Pacific tracks at the Santa Clara avenue crossing. He said the P. E. plans to haul its freight from Orange onto North Main street and along the state highway for a hundred yards or more, and to that extent the county at large is interested. He thought it would not be well to have freight hauled along the state highway, and residents of North Main street within the city limits are opposed to the freight hauling proposal and also the proposal to have freight tracks in their vicinity.

Jackman said that he had written to the P. E. officials proposing that a freight spur be laid west from Main street to the West Orange depot. In reply he was told that the proposal was a good one, but that it was too late to take it up. Jackman declared the State Railroad Commission, to which the P. E. has applied for a permit to lay the rails on North Main street to require the P. E. to build to the West Orange depot. He had sent in a personal protest against the "present" plans. He asked the Associated Chambers to join him. The matter was referred to a committee consisting of A. A. Mills of Anaheim, S. M. Davis of Santa Ana and A. W. Griffith of Huntington Beach, with power to act.

In reply to the Associated Chambers of Commerce resolution thanking David Hewes for maintaining beautiful Hewes Park as a public park, the following letter was received and read last night by Secretary Metzgar:

"Dear Sirs:—In recognition of the resolutions adopted at your May 28, 1913, meeting, I thank you as a body, collectively and individually, for the compliment extended to me. This added to the happiness I have received in contributing pleasure to the visiting friends of Orange county, and most certainly is my reward. My aim in life has ever been without self-aggrandizement to do for my fellow man and shed pleasure and happiness broadcast. In that I have gathered my own enjoyment.

"To the Associated Chambers of Commerce I extend my heartfelt gratitude for their courtesy to me, and to peets the committee to report favorably, although the administration opposes the resolutions.

Kahn appeared before the committee and denounced Attorney General McReynolds and commended McNab for resigning when ordered to postpone the trials. Action was postponed until tomorrow because a quorum was not present.

C. E. PENDELL FOUND DEAD IN OFFICE

Wealthy Loan and Real Estate Man Weltered in Pool of His Own Blood

$6200 IN REWARDS ARE OFFERED BY HIS WIDOW

Pendell Had Made Enemies in Money Lending—Had Been Warned of Murder

LOS ANGELES, June 26.—Charles E. Pendell, a wealthy real estate dealer and money lender residing at 1010 South Alvarado street, was slain late yesterday afternoon in his office in room 49, Temple block, and robbed of two diamonds valued at between $1500 and $2000, and possibly a large amount of money.

Mystery surrounds the crime, and though the police made a thorough investigation along a dozen different lines, no arrests had been made up to a late hour last night. Mr. Pendell's body was not found until after 8 o'clock last night, when his wife became alarmed at his absence.

Mr. Pendell was slain with a blunt instrument, having been struck several blows on the head.

According to Henry Pendell, son of the murdered man, his father frequently carried large sums of money, as much as several thousand dollars, on his person.

Mr. Pendell was about 60 years old. He had been a resident of Los Angeles for many years and was well known and respected. His fortune generally was rated at about $250,000.

Rewards amounting to $6200 were offered today for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of Pendell. Mrs. Pendell offered the rewards through Sheriff Hammel, a friend of the deceased. Five thousand dollars is offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, $1000 for information concerning the murderer, whether arrested or not, and $200 for information of anyone who visited Pendell's office yesterday afternoon.

The dead man, who was a loan agent as well as a real estate dealer, had made many enemies through loaning money, and had been repeatedly warned to protect himself against murderers. Four thousand dollars worth of diamonds and valuable papers were stolen from the body, which was lying in a pool of blood in the Temple block office where he was discovered after having been dead some hours.

Detectives went over the books of the murdered man in his office today and declared that $100,000 in cash and jewelry is unaccounted for. It is believed this was secured by the murderers. Valuables and gold coin to that amount had been removed from a safety deposit vault by Pendell and placed in the safe before the murder.

ENGLAND FETES PRESIDENT OF FRANCE

Visits Receptions and Gala Events Succeed Each Other; Guest Gives Return Feast

LONDON, June 26.—There were further rounds of visits and receptions of deputations for President Poincare of France this morning and then after lunch he was compelled to climb into evening dress in order to accompany King George and Queen Mary to the gala performance of the International Horse Show. It has not been found possible to include a gala night at the opera in the program of his short stay, so a special performance was arranged at the big Olympia enclosure.

The route from Buckingham Palace was lined with troops and cavalry escorts accompanied the royal carriages. Guards of honor were posted at the entrance to the Olympia and the "Marseillaise" and "God Save the King" were played alternately. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, Prince Arthur, with all the other princes and princesses were present and the great enclosure was packed hours before the time set for the opening event. A mounted parade of 200 officers of all nations, wearing the uniform of their respective countries was followed by the international competitions for the King Edward VII Gold Cup for teams of officers. A strong French team made a strenuous effort to win the cup outright, France having already won it twice. A riding display of 12 French officers from the Saumur cavalry depot was a popular number.

President Poincare today deposited memorial wreaths on the tombs of Queen Victoria and King Edward, and also inspected Windsor Castle. Tonight, President Poincare returns the King's hospitality by giving through Ambassador Cambon, a banquet at the French embassy. The King and Queen and other royal families are among the guests invited as well as Foreign Secretary Sir Edward Grey and prominent statesmen and army officials. The President's visit ends tomorrow when he will be escorted to the railway station by the King and the royal families with full military honors.

"HIS LIFE OR MINE," SAYS WOMAN TRIED FOR MURDER

SHREVEPORT, La., June 26.—"It was his life or mine. I killed him to prevent him killing me." On this statement by Mrs. Della Stroud, the defense hopes to acquit the woman, who on April 14, shot her husband to death as she and Edward Beeler, a roomer in the Stroud home, were riding to Vivian, La. Mrs. Stroud went to trial here today before Judge John R. Land, with District Attorney W. A. Mabry prosecuting the charge. Former District Attorney James M. Foster is the woman's lawyer. Her chief witness will be Beeler, whose leg was broken and had to be amputated because blood poisoning set in after one of the bullets Mrs. Stroud fired at her husband lodged in Beeler's leg just above the knee. The shooting occurred on the road where Stroud followed the two on horseback. Mrs. Stroud says she took the pistol from her husband while he was struggling with Beeler.

NEW BANQUET ROOM AND LUNCH ROOM HAVE BEEN ADDED

Recently there has been many improvements made in a number of the business establishments of Santa Ana. Several new store fronts have been put in, and extensive alterations have been made in other mercantile houses, to accommodate the rapidly growing patronage.

The most notable among these improvements and extensions has just been completed at Taylor Bros. confectionery establishment on West Fourth street. Under the supervision of Contractor C. M. Jordan there has been added two large eating rooms, one of which is to be used as a regular lunch room and the other for a private banquet room. As one enters the store he is immediately impressed with the beauty of the two large gilded columns which serve as supports for the balcony and which are situated on either side of the stairway. The new regular luncheon balcony which extends over the original parlor downstairs is finished in dull, dark Flemish oak. The floor is of polished hard wood. The walls have a beautiful scenic border around the top which harmonizes in the whole decorative scheme. The gilded chairs and tables give a very bright and inviting appearance to the room. This part of the new addition is lighted with two suspended ceiling art glass lamps and eight side wall drop lamps, and these when illuminated shed a soft, but radiant light over the tables. This balcony can be used by those patrons who wish to avail themselves of the pleasant surroundings. The seating capacity of the balcony is forty-eight.

Separating this room from the banquet room is a beautiful gilded archway, on either side of which there is a fluted column. The private banquet room is indeed a work of art. The whole color scheme is gold. The chairs and tables in this room as in the balcony are gilded. The ceiling is constructed of sheet steel, in the center of which is a beautiful art glass skylight. The window at the very rear is also of art glass. Situated on each side of this window there is a buffet for the storing of dishes, and which contain compartments for the table linen. The floor is of polished hard wood, and the walls contain art panels which lend charm to the decorative scheme of the whole compartment. To the left as you enter the banquet hall there is a door which leads to a ladies' dressing room, which is fitted up in the most approved style and contains all the necessary conveniences, and on the left there is a commodious men's hat and coat closet. The room is lighted by an invisible, indirect system which greatly enhances the beauty of the hall and the seating capacity is sixty-four.

In addition to these extensive and elaborate improvements, the kitchen has been remodeled, enlarged and better equipped so that every facility for taking care of patrons in the best possible manner is now available. The whole store has been repapered and finished in the dull rich color, new plate glass show windows have been put in and a new soda fountain has been installed.

These improvements make this establishment one of the most up-to-date on the Pacific coast and it is not only a credit to the enterprise of the proprietors but also to Santa Ana.

CARRANZA FEARS ANTAGONISM OF U. S.

Hopes Rebel Attack on Juarez May Not Occur; Large Force is Advancing

EL PASO, Texas, June 26.—Strong bodies of constitutionalists under General Francisco Villa, commander in the state of Chihuahua, are reported by couriers to have reached Guzman and Villa Ahumada, seventy-five and eighty-three miles south of Ciudad Juarez, on their overland march to attack Juarez.

The body of constitutionalists reported at Ahumada is said to be well equipped with cavalry, five machine guns and plenty of ammunition and supplies. The force which Castro depends upon to defend Juarez in case of an attack is estimated at about 1000 men, mostly infantry. Their artillery strength is put at four field pieces and two mountain howitzers. Five hundred Mexicans, armed and determined, await the coming of "Pancho" Villa to Juarez, and will go to his assistance when he attacks the border town.

Fearing that a battle on the border, near so large a city as El Paso, may arouse American antagonism to the rebel cause, General V. Carranza, rebel commander-in-chief, has sent emissaries to "Pancho" Villa, urging him not to attack the town. Carranza, it is claimed, is eager to win American favor in the struggle to overthrow Huerta.

Villa already has learned that Carranza had sent men to see him, and it was announced at the local junta today that the attack on Juarez had been postponed until Sunday to allow the emissaries to reach and confer with the former bandit chief.

HEWES LEMONS GO AT TOP NOTCH PRICE

Orange News: Among the recent fancy prices being received for citrus fruits grown in this district, comes the report of a sale in the Minneapolis market, in which a carload of lemons shipped by the David Hewes Association brought the astonishing price of $8.85 per box. This, it is stated, is the highest price that has been paid for any lemons shipped from California this year. That fact is considered quite a feather in the cap of this district.

The sale of the carload means a net sum of $3,128.40 for the California. It was not the sale of a few boxes of fancy selected fruit, but was a straight carload of the extra choice "Hewes Park" brand. The local association is not to be blamed for feeling highly elated over the sale, and the mark is set.

CELEBRATION IS ABANDONED

Owing to Failure in Raising Funds Big Doings for Day Are Called Off

Members of Company 26 Express Regret at Turn Affairs Have Taken

Anaheim Gazette: Owing to failure on the part of the canvassing committees to raise sufficient funds for the Fourth of July celebration scheduled here by Company 26 of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias, the affair has been called off. About $1500 was desired and less than half this amount was raised. Company 26 desired that $500 in prizes should be awarded competing companies of the organization at competitive drills here during the day. This money was to have been used in purchase of silver cups but it was found impossible to raise this amount. About $650 was promised for the barbecue and other features of the day, but when the committees found themselves unable to raise funds for silver medals, it was decided on Saturday to call the celebration off.

A circular letter was mailed on Monday to companies of the Uniform Rank throughout California and Arizona. The text of the letter is as follows:

"Anaheim, Cal., June 16, 1913.
"To Subordinate Lodges, Knights of Pythias, and to Companies of the Uniform Rank, K. of P. in the Domain of California:

"Company No. 26, U.R.K.P. of Anaheim, regrets to announce that the celebration of the Fourth of July, which was to have been given under its auspices at Anaheim, has been abandoned, the proper support expected of the people of Anaheim having failed to materialize.

"It is with a sense of humiliation that this announcement is made, and the company trusts that it will be able to make amends in the future to its brothers and comrades for any disappointment occasioned by the abandonment of the proposed celebration.

"Members of the celebration committee had for some weeks past mapped out one of the biggest celebrations ever held in this county. Brigadier General J. O. Royer, commanding the brigade of the Uniform Rank, associated himself with his usual liberality in the celebration, and had planned to bring 3500 members of K. P. to this city. Among companies expected here were three Uniform Rank companies from Arizona. When local subscriptions failed to materialize, the invitation to all companies was recalled and the letter published herewith mailed to them.

Keen regret is expressed on the part of the people that the celebration had to be called off. A feature of the affair was to have been a grand barbecue feast composed of two beehives and a number of fat sheep. A military ball in the evening and fireworks during the afternoon and night were also to have been features of the festivities.

A meeting of the local committee-men was held on Saturday, when General Royer was communicated with and it was decided that in view of lack of funds the celebration should be finally called off.

DENVER, June 26.—The preliminary ceremonies over, the first athletic contests of the thirty-first Olympiad of the North American Gymnastic Union began today at the stadium especially built for the games at Lakeside Park. # TEN DAYS ONLY TO CLEAN UP WEEDS

City Following New Act to Get Rid of Weeds on Five
City Streets

SUPERINTENDENT POSTING NOTICES

Taxpayers Get Chance First,
But If They Do Not Act the City Will

Street Superintendent English yesterday began posting notices along five city streets for the purpose of getting weeds cleared away under the new weed act, passed by the last legislature and now in effect. By this act the city can force property owners to pay for cleaning up unsightly frontages. Property owners have ten days in which to clean up the weeds on frontages on Sycamore, Broadway, Birch, First and Second streets. The city will do the work and the property owner have the cost to pay, if the weeds are not cleaned up within ten days.

The law under which the work is projected follows:

Assembled Bill No. 2104

CHAPTER 240

An act authorizing municipalities of the fifth and sixth classes to declare weeds growing upon public streets to be a nuisance, providing a means for the abatement of said nuisance, and collecting the cost of removing such weeds from the owners of abutting land.

[Approved June 6, 1913.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Municipalities of the fifth and sixth classes of the state are hereby authorized to declare all weeds growing upon any public street including the sidewalks thereon, in such municipalities to be a public nuisance, to abate such nuisance in the manner herein provided and to collect the cost of removing such weeds from the street from the owners of abutting land thereon.

Section 2. The legislative body of any municipality of the fifth and sixth classes whenever weeds are growing upon any street in such municipality, may, by resolution adopted by such legislative body, declare the same to be a nuisance, which said resolution shall specify the street or streets or any portion of said street upon which such nuisance exists; such resolution shall direct the superintendent of streets or person performing the duties of street supervision, to give the notice required by the section succeeding hereto.

Section 3. The resolution may be passed at the meeting in which it is first introduced, and without publication thereof, and the superintendent of streets shall cause to be immediately posted along the line of street or streets or portion of streets named in such resolution, a notice substantially in the following form:

NOTICE TO DESTROY WEEDS.
The board of trustees of the city of ..... having on ..... day of ..... declared by resolution that all weeds growing on ..... street, or portion of ..... street, in said city, are a public nuisance, and having commanded the abatement of the same.

Notice is hereby given to all owners of property fronting upon the street above named, in front of which property such nuisance exists, to abate the same within ten (10) days from the date of this notice by the removal of such weeds.

Upon failure to abate the same as herein required such weeds will be removed by the municipal authorities of said city, and the cost of such removal will be made a legal charge against the owner of the land abutting the street on the side of the street, on which side said weeds were removed, in favor of the city of ..... and said city may collect the cost of removing said weeds from the owner of said land by an action brought in the recorder's court of said city.

Dated this ..... day of .....

Superintendent of streets of city of .....

The above notice shall be posted along the line of the street or portions of street named therein, at intervals of not less than fifty feet, and said notices be posted for ten (10) days prior to the time stated therein as the time at which failure to abate such nuisance will give these municipal authorities the right to abate the same.

Section 4. If upon the expiration of ten (10) days after the posting of the notice required to be given by the preceding section, the owner or owners of real property fronting the street named therein, in front of which such nuisance exists, fails or neglects to abate the same, it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets of such city to abate the same by the removal of such weeds. He shall keep an account of the cost of abating such nuisance in front of each separate lot or parcel of land fronting such street, including the cost of printing the notices, particularly specifying the cost of abatement to be charged against each such separate lot or parcel of land. He shall file such statement or account with the legislative body of the city, and such legislative body shall pay such cost out of the general fund of such municipality.

The superintendent of streets thereupon shall send a notice by mail to said owners of lots or parcels of land in front of which said weeds have been removed by the municipal authorities, demanding the payment of the amount of the cost of removing said weeds, and if said owner does not pay the same within ten days after the date of said notice demanding the payment of said costs of removal of said weeds said city may institute an action against said owner of land for the collection at law of said costs of removal of weeds in the recorder's court of the city where said weeds were removed.

THE GRAND MARSHAL WAS LODGE'S GUEST

ANAHEIM, June 25.—A very interesting meeting was held by the Chrispa Chapter of Eastern Star Lodge No. 151, of Anaheim, last evening in the Masonic Hall, on North Los Angeles street. Three candidates were initiated into the order. A number of visitors from outside lodges were present, among them being Minnie Hiner, Grand Marshal of Grand Chapter of Eastern Star, of the state of California. She was accompanied by several past officers of Loyalty Chapter of Los Angeles. The Matron of El Monte Chapter and the Matron of Buena Park Chapter were also present. After the work of the evening was finished, a short program was rendered. A reading given by Mrs. Robinson, entitled "The Five Points of the Star," was very appropriate and especially good. At the conclusion of the program refreshments of ice cream, cake and strawberries were served and a social hour followed.

On Thursday evening, July 3rd, the Chrispa Chapter of Anaheim will give a card party and social dance in the Odd Fellows Hall of this city. The public will be cordially welcomed.

TO CELEBRATE AT FULLERTON

People of Orange County Asked to Meet There on Fourth

FULLERTON, June 26.—The Knights of Pythias lodge, endorsed by the Chamber of Commerce and the city trustees, is planning a big celebration for Fullerton July 4. This is the only city in this part of the county that will get up a celebration. Judge West of Santa Ana will be the orator of the day. In the forenoon there will be a big automobile parade, followed by speeches, and the afternoon will be given up to sports. The people of Orange county will be invited to pass the day here. There is to be a big display of fireworks in the evening.

Bean Shipments

D. J. Bastanchury is making a shipment of ten carloads of beans to Los Angeles. It is a part of the crop left over from last October, which was held for a higher price. The ten cars will bring to the producer $12,000. All of these beans were grown between rows of fruit trees and part of the output is of the Lima variety, which will not about $90 an acre. This is said to bring in a good income while Bastanchury is waiting for his fruit and walnut trees to bear.

Charges Cruelty

Mrs. C. B. Rush has filed a complaint against her husband, charging him with desertion and failure to provide. Rush left here about two weeks ago, sending word that he would send a part of his salary to his wife and child. Rush is an employee of the Standard Oil Company and is said to have gone to Taft.

Just as Hoken has returned from Victorville, where he has been looking after his ranch.

Prof. Cook, state horticultural commissioner, will speak here tomorrow night.

Miss Avis Knowlton has gone to Laguna for a month's outing.

There was a quarter of an inch of rain here this morning, something unusual for this season of the year.

E. C. Culmer, owner of a 180-acre tract in Ventura county, is here on business. There are a number of hot springs on the property which may be developed at great expense in the near future.

Mrs. George E. Hodge, mother of Culmer, has been passing several days at the springs, and is greatly improved in health. She was dangerously ill three weeks ago.

President E. K. Benchley of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank, and Sherman Stevens of Tustin, have gone north for a week's outing.

Gaston Bastanchury is planting a large number of trees on his place west of town and is using dynamite to make the holes and loosen up the earth. He finds the new method economical.

TRUTH IN ADVERTISING

The above phrase was the recent convention slogan of the Associated Advertising Clubs. President Wilson's greeting expressed warm approval of the sentiment.

This motto expresses so thoroughly the spirit of retail advertising in a town like this, that one questions why this big organization needs to have given such prominence to the idea. It may seem like a confession.

Undoubtedly many of the advertising campaigns on a national scale, which blossom out in the magazines at high space rates, are over colored. You are promised all the blessings of health and happiness if you only eat Jones' bacon. Many of the attractive cuts printed in the mail order catalog are only a half truth. The cunning camera conceals all defects.

A druggist was once questioned as to why it was necessary to advertise that a certain medicine would be a sure cure. Even admitting it was a good remedy, it couldn't help all cases. He replied that if you simply told the truth, that it was helpful in the majority of instances, people would never buy it. The public discounted anything that was said, and the advertising had consequently to be written above reality.

In the long run this exaggeration hurts. The mail order house and the national advertiser, however, are not easily accessible to customers. They can sell quite a quantity of goods before suffering for exaggeration.

The retail merchant catering to a public near his own store suffers instantly from any misstatement. The goods, like the cat, come back. They come back very soon.

The imminence of retribution for misstatements in local advertising has compelled even a slippery merchant to be very careful of what he says in a newspaper. Hence the public can rely on it. When a merchant says publicly that his goods are so and so, he gives a bond to the community of the truth of the statement and the satisfaction of the purchaser.

COST OF LIVING CLIMBING

Every leading article of food except sugar, of the fifteen staples, representing approximately two-thirds of the expenditure of food by the average workingman's family, showed a decided increase in retail price on February 15, 1913, compared with the average price for the ten year period, 1899-1909, according to the latest investigation of the statisticians of the bureau of labor. Sugar showed an advance of only 4.9 per cent; smoked bacon was 11.6 per cent higher.

Increases in the other food articles were: Sirloin steak, 69.8 per cent; round steak, 48.5 per cent; rib roast, 46.7; pork chops, 89.4; smoked hams, 69.1; pure lard, 62.8; hens, 66.6; wheat flour, 25.4; corn meal, 56.1; strictly fresh eggs, 56.9; creamery butter, 63.5; white potatoes, 23.6; fresh milk, 36.1.

The prices were collected in 39 important industrial cities in which live one-fifth of the total number of people in the continental United States.

There was an advance of 3.2 per cent over February 15, 1912, in the relative prices figured, according to the average consumption of the various articles of food in workingmen's families.

WHY BEEF IS HIGH

He was talking about the high cost of living and the cost of high living in general and the price of beef in particular.

"When the marketman handed out to me for 72 cents a pound of steak weighing only 2 1/4 pounds, I let loose on him," he said. "While we were arguing," he continued, "a little bare-foot girl came in and said her mother wanted soup meat. She got a parcel weighing 2 1/4 pounds, just like mine. She only paid 19 cents. Not many patrons would be satisfied with that kind of a dinner."

The butcher, he said, went on to remark that he did not know who was getting the money, save that the price is abnormally raised by the insistence of most people on the best cuts. He was paying higher for rent than five years ago, higher for labor of three helpers. He had two delivery teams instead of one. The higher price of his beef was only one factor.

The simple fact, just brought out in a government report, that while population has increased 14 per cent, the number of cattle has decreased 39 per cent, explains much.

It often seems as if the provision business was not handled as efficiently as, say the dry goods business. In the

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, June 26.—Have they started talking about next year in your town yet? That is, baseballly speaking. We know all about the old chatter of how next year every body is going to save some money and lift the mortgage on the old homestead or the watch or the overcoat, but those are tragedies. In the "merry month of June" now fading rapidly away into July it is right and proper, as some perspiring solon in Washington might say, to be merry. Therefore—also hence—in looking over a field for possible merry-making just take up the old home team as it stands, place it upon a pedestal—if there is enough of it left to place—and look it over. Then propound a question. Say it so each word will sink in like this:

"Whatcha gonna do next year?" Then will come the answer: "Next year there'll be laughter and sunshine," but what's the use? It's the same old story the country over. Out of every league, whether bush, merely minor or major (and there are several hundred in the collection) there are now all the way from four to seven teams singing the praises of next year's chances. They have fizzled, flopped, sprawling, and now look forward to the winter months when they will prepare to get back on their feet again, and lashing their trusty axes to their sides, stride forth to do battle once more.

In the American league there will be one town that will not pull the next year tango until the last man is out in the last game of the league schedule. That is Cleveland. They may suffer a slump or they may head the Athletics, but in Cleveland they have decided the Naps are going to win the pennant. That's all there is to it.

Where the next year song sounds sweetest and really rings with one of those "ev'rybody's in" is in New York. The Yankees have a real hope. That's easy remarks the boy in the first row. They (meaning the Yankees) having inhabited the cellar for dry goods trade in most towns, merchants advertise freely, and either build up a large all around trade, or a large business in some specialties. They can afford to sell cheap.

The provision trade is usually divided up among a lot of stores. Many of them don't advertise, or if they do, it may be merely a business card without a direct telling appeal to the logic of the purchaser. The result is that the delivery of meat to the consumer is all split up among a number of small concerns. There is a wasteful duplication of expense.

If some one or two of them would build up larger trade through advertising, they could persuade people to come to their stores and carry parcels home, they could cut off some of their delivery work, reduce overhead charges, and sell cheaper.

Drew Up Receipt

Two brothers, Michael and Daniel, started in business as jobbing carpenters. Their education was limited and they had no experience whatever in business affairs. However, they were good carpenters and had a host of friends in the neighborhood.

One morning a customer called at their shop to pay a bill, and having settled the account satisfactorily he demanded a receipt. Mike asked Dan to get the receipt. Dan offered some excuse, and finally Mike retired to a little room at the back, and after a very long delay emerged with a slip of paper in his hand, his hair all ruffled and his face as flushed as though he had been lifting a hundred-pound beam.

"Here is yer receipt, sor. I'd rather put on a tin roof in July than write another."

The paper contained the following in boldly printed letters:

"We got our pay. Me and Dan."

Oil a Necessity

Hundreds of women try to get good work out of the household machinery without ever using the oil can. The sewing machine should be cleaned and oiled every time it is to be used for a few hours. It is rust and dirt that causes the machine to creak and run heavy. A little gasoline or coal oil will bring out the dirt and gumminess, and this should be cleaned off the working parts, then follow it up with the application of a few drops of good machine oil.

"Subject" and "Citizen"

A subject is one who owes allegiance to a sovereign and is governed by his laws. A citizen is a member of a state or nation; one bound to the state by reciprocal obligation of allegiance on the one hand and protection on the other. A German in his own country is both subject and citizen. If he becomes naturalized in this country he becomes a citizen of the United States and is no longer a subject of anybody. If he does not become naturalized here he remains a citizen of Germany and a subject of the Kaiser.

Sandwiches left over from an afternoon tea or reception need not be looked upon as just so much wasted material. The careful hostess utilizes them in many ways.

Ham sandwiches can be transformed into a breakfast dish simply by toasting them to a golden brown and pouring over them a cream sauce into which have been stirred minced ham and parsley. Where a more hearty breakfast dish is desired allow one poached egg to two small sandwiches, arranging the eggs on the toast before covering with the cream sauce.

so long, it would be a big hope for them even to hope to hope they could soar far upward to seventh place. But that is not the answer. Chance has brought the erstwhile chaotic Yankees to where they show as much baseball per cubic cerebellum as any other team in the league. He has brought out some, and chucked out others of the men who were with the team when he arrived, and his new blood looks promising. Washington has had eight players on the hospital list at one time, and there is hope down there that the jinx may be lost next year. Smoky Joe Wood failed Boston in its attempt to be a two-time winner of the American League pennant and Stahl was out much of the time with a bum ankle. By next year the Red Sox hope to have worn off the demoralizing effect of having captured the world's title, and play ball. Stovall, in St. Louis has had much the same work to do as Chance in New York. He improved this year and out there they are certain he will improve next year. Detroit is hoping President Navin will be able to sign Ty Cobb early enough in the season to give them a running start. Chicago hopes Ed Walsh won't go back and that another one like him will develop.

It is a peculiar situation in the National League. McGraw has been insisting that Pittsburgh was one of the teams he considered most dangerous in the pennant race. But the Giants took three straight from Pittsburgh on the last visit, and the Phillies still were galloping in the lead.

The Pirates have supported a young hospital through part of the season and if the expected rally from there should fail to materialize, now that the stock are well, there is supreme hope in Smoketown for next year. C. Webb Murphy still says the Cubs will win by an eighteen game margin so all arguments are off. Brooklyn shot up like a sky rocket at the start, but simmered down like the stick, and they are warbling "Next Year" across the big bridge. St. Louis cut its usual swath at the start this year and they are saying it will be a repeater next year minus the drop-back of 1913. So to the Cardinals, Boston and Chicago and there is left the club to build a song as they can pick from the remnants. Tinker may yet jab a rally out of the Reds but no matter what the song or where it is sung during the coming months, it will always end: "When we once get to going next year."

STANDARD IS STILL ACTIVE

Agent of That Company Has Bought MacMullan Ranch, Not Far From Test Well

OLIVE, June 26.—The Standard Oil Co. agents continue to keep things interesting around here. All reports are to the effect that the indications of oil are excellent, and that it will no, be long before the well being put down by the Standard on the Bixby ranch will be producing. That the Standard people have faith in the well is said to be indicated by the fact that their agents are anxiously seeking leases.

Agents have also been buying land, and offers for purchases have been made to several owners in this vicinity. About a month ago the MacMullan ranch was sold to Alonzo Bonestall for $12,500. Bonestall has sold to a Standard Oil man for $13,500. The man may be buying as an investment on his own hook, or he may be representing the oil company. A Standard agent is negotiating with C. F. Isaacson for the purchase of thirty acres of land. Mrs. Watson has leased four acres to the oil company.

Wife Worth Having

Herr Blumenthal, a director of the Lessing theater in Berlin, once had great misgivings regarding the success of his new piece, "Zum Weissen Rosse."

"If I had only 20 marks for every thousand it will bring you I should be quite content," said his wife.

"All right, you shall have them," replied Herr Blumenthal.

"Zum Weissen Rosse" ("White Horse Inn") met with an immediate success. Every night the Frau Director went to the cashier and levied her 20 marks per thousand.

On one occasion, after the piece had been running some months, had weather caused a falling off in the receipts below the thousand marks, and consequently Frau Blumenthal was not nettled to her 20 marks.

How much have you taken?" she asked the cashier.

"Only 897 marks," was the reply.

"Well, give me a seat at three marks, then," said Frau Blumenthal, laying down the coin. "Now you have a thousand marks, give me my 20."

She got them—Ten Bits.

Where Turtles Are Plentiful

The green turtle is found most extensively all along the coast of Magdalena bay, Lower California. The natives in a great many localities subsist almost entirely on its meat. At the place named a firm once purchased these turtles for 50 cents and sold them in the markets of San Francisco for $5, but it is doubtful if they could be obtained at such prices now.

ORANGE BOARD WAITING FOR STATE REPORT

Trustees Ready to Do What Hyde Says, But Will Not Move Till Then

ORANGE, June 26.—The Orange city board is going to make no move in regard to the West Orange sewer farm conditions unless directed to do so by the State Board of Health. Today Adolph Dittmer, president of the board, issued a statement in regard to the report that the district attorney's office has drawn up a complaint against the city of Orange, charging it with maintaining a nuisance. Dittmer says that the Orange board has made every reasonable effort to handle its sewage in a sanitary manner.

Dittmer says that Charles G. Hyde, engineer of the State Board of Health, has inspected the system there, and has stated that the Orange septic tank is the best in the state of its class. Hyde is in full possession of the facts, and the city board rests its case with him. Should he give instructions to make changes the city will do so.

The city has made arrangements for farming the output from the septic tank over sixty-four acres. Last summer an attempt was made to farm it on fourteen acres, and that resulted in conditions that caused complaint. Dittmer says those conditions will not prevail this summer.

RETIREMENT OF BANK NOTE CLAUSE IN CURRENCY BILL

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President Wilson and his advisors today decided to reinstate in the currency reform bill the clause providing for the retirement of the present issue of $700,000,000 national bank notes secured by two per cent bonds, and give the federal reserve board the right to reissue the retired currency by a re-funding scheme of three per cent bonds.

The present issue will take twenty years to retire.

LAST EBELL MEETING

Brilliant Program Arranged;
Local Artists Will Appear;
Mrs. Bartlett Coming

The Ebells Society will hold its last meeting for this season on Saturday, June 28, at Elks' hall. The affair promises to be a more than usually brilliant one, both musically and socially. The musical numbers will be given by Mrs. James S. Rice, by Mrs. L. A. Vierson, better known here perhaps as Minna Roper, and by Miss Ruth Inez Deardorff. All of these artists are too well known to need any introduction in Santa Ana, where their work is always greatly enjoyed.

A talk will be given by Mrs. W. S. Bartlett of Los Angeles. Mrs. Bartlett is always a most welcome visitor in Santa Ana and particularly so among the members of the Ebells Society, for she was chosen its first president, when the society was organized, nearly twenty years ago.

Special seats are to be reserved for the charter members and past presidents of the Ebells.

The chief matter of business to come before the society is the question of raising the yearly dues, which will come up for a vote Saturday afternoon.

The social end of the affair will be in the nature of a reception to Mrs. Bartlett and to the incoming and outgoing officers. Refreshments are to be served, and everything indicates that Saturday afternoon will be a gala occasion which will be one of the pleasantest in the club's history.

The meeting will open on Saturday afternoon at 2:15 instead of at 2:30 o'clock, the usual hour. The shades will be drawn in the auditorium and the lights will be on.

Missionary Meeting
The Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, met at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith, Ross and Hickey streets, yesterday afternoon. There were about forty ladies present. Fancy work and animated conversation interested the ladies through the afternoon.

Refreshments were served by the committee. Hydrangeas and house plants were employed in decorations. Those who entertained and served were Mrs. Dr. Wiseman, Mrs. C. H. McNaught and Mrs. George Wright.

Young Ladies Travel Club
The last meeting for the season was held yesterday afternoon by this club at the home of the Misses Minter. Sicily was studied and a plan of study for next season was outlined. It was decided to have lectures before the club, including one on Panama Canal to be given by some one outside of the club. Lectures on Europe and the Western Hemisphere will be given by Miss Lulu Minter, leader, and Miss Louise Long, assistant leader. Mrs. Clyde Walker, secretary. The first meeting of next season will be held at the home of Mrs. Cal Lester on a date to be announced later.

Miss Rowland was a guest of the club, and was given a cordial welcome during the social hour. Refreshments were served before the final adjournment of the club.

WELCOMED NEW PASTOR

Reception Held Last Night in Greeting of Rev. Fred Staff and His Family

Giving the hand of fellowship and welcome to the new pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, Rev. Fred Staff, and his wife and family, the members of that church assembled last evening in large numbers in the beautiful church auditorium.

The program of welcome was opened by a duet splendidly sung by Mrs. Ella I. Fyfe and Conrad Crookshank. These favorite singers sang "Oh, That We Two Were Maying." Other musical numbers were a solo by Maurice Phillips, "Three for Jack;" two vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Johnson, (a) "The Sunbeam," (b) "The Rainbow;" a ladies' quartette, "Once Again," sung by Mrs. A. Beals, Mrs. A. E. Chapman, Mrs. C. F. Crose and Mrs. W. H. Crose; two numbers, (a) "Within the Garden of My Heart," (b) "Hear You Calling," sung by R. R. Miles; a trio, "O Memory," rendered by Mrs. Fyfe, Mrs. Chapman and Conrad Crookshank; "Abide With Me," sung by a Japanese student of Berkeley, who is spending the summer here and whose name was not obtained; "Lambard Watch," sung by Messrs. Maurice Phillips and F. C. Rowland, and a Bach piano number by Mrs. Arnold Peck. Mrs. R. E. Miles, Mrs. Arnold Peck and Mrs. Stearns were the accompanists of the evening.

There were short talks by heads of departments, W. B. Tedford giving an address of welcome in behalf of the church and Men's Brotherhood; W. H. Crose for the Sunday School; Mrs. P. L. Tope for the Ladies' Aid; Marjorie Shaw for the Intermediates; Ralph Beals for the Boys' Brotherhood; Mrs. F. C. Rowland for the Amphion Circle; Mrs. C. F. Crose for the Missionary Society; Rev. W. L. C. Samson for the ministers of Santa Ana. Both Rev. and Mrs. Staff responded to the hearty welcome they had received at the hands of the church and from the pastors of the city.

An hour of social intercourse followed the program and during that time delicious refreshments were served in the Sunday school auditorium which was prettily decorated with daisies and ferns. Ferns and flowers also adorned the main auditorium of the church. The reception hour preceded the program and the trustees of the church and their wives acted as the reception committee.

Superintendent of City Schools J. A. Cranston was in charge of the program and proved an able Master of Ceremonies.

WILSON MESSAGE ON THE CURRENCY

President Urges Congress to Pass New Law.

ASKS FOR ACTION AT ONCE

Chief Executive Appears in Person Before Congress to Tell the Need of Immediate Changes in the Banking Laws—He Declares That the Revision of the Tariff Will Not Be Complete Without Further Legislation Which Will Enable Business Men to Take Advantage of the Changed Conditions.

Address of the president of the United States, delivered at a joint session of the two houses of congress June 23, 1913.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Gentlemen of the Congress—I am under the compulsion of what seems to me a clear and imperative duty that I have a second time this session sought the privilege of addressing you in person. I know, of course, that the heated season of the year is upon us, that work in these chambers and in the committee rooms is likely to become a burden as the season lengthens and that every consideration of personal convenience and personal comfort, perhaps, in the cases of some of us, considerations of personal health even, dictate an early conclusion of the deliberations of the session. But there are occasions of public duty when these things which touch us privately seem very small, when the work to be done is so pressing and so fraught with big consequence that we know that we are not at liberty to weigh against it any point of personal sacrifice. We are now in the presence of such an occasion. It is absolutely imperative that we should give the business men of this country a banking and currency system by means of which they can make use of the freedom of enterprise and of individual initiative which we are about to bestow upon them.

Must Leave Tools of Action. We are about to set them free. We must not leave them without the tools of action when they are free. We are about to set them free by removing the trammels of the protective tariff. Ever since the civil war they have waited for this emancipation and for the free opportunities it will bring with it. It has been reserved for us to give it to them. Some fell in love, indeed, with the stolid security of their dependence upon the government; some took advantage of the shelter of the nursery to set up a mimic mastery of their own within its walls. Now both the tonic and discipline of liberty and maturity are to ensue. There will be some readjustments of purpose and point of view. There will follow a period of expansion and new enterprise, freshly conceived. It is for us to determine now whether it shall be rapid and facile and of easy accomplishment. This it cannot be unless the resourceful business men who are to deal with the new circumstances are to have at hand and ready for use the instrumentalities and conveniences of free enterprise which independent men need when acting on their own initiative.

Constructive Statesmanship.

It is not enough to strike the shackles from business. The duty of statesmanship is not negative merely. It is constructive also. We must show that we understand what business needs and that we know how to supply it. No man, however casual and superficial his observation of the conditions now prevailing in the country, can fail to see that one of the chief things business needs now and will need increasingly as it gains in scope and vigor in the years immediately ahead of us is the proper means by which readily to vitalize its credit, corporate and individual, and its origination brains.

What will it profit us to be free if we are not to have the best and most accessible instrumentalities of commerce and enterprise? What will it profit us to be quit of one kind of monopoly if we are to remain in the grip of another and more effective kind? How are we to gain and keep the confidence of the business community unless we show that we know how both to aid and to protect it? What shall we say if we make fresh enterprises necessary and also make it very difficult by leaving all else except the tariff just as we found it? The tyrannies of business, big and little, lie within the field of credit. We know that. Shall we not act upon the knowledge? Do we not know how to act upon it? If a man cannot make his assets available at pleasure, his assets of capacity and character and resource, what satisfaction is it to him to see opportunity beckoning to him on every hand when others have the keys of credit in their pockets and treat them as all but their own private possession? It is perfectly clear that it is our duty to supply the new banking and currency system the country needs and that it will immediately need it more than ever.

Need of Currency Changes.

The only question is, When shall we supply it—now or later, after the demands shall have become reproaches that we were so dull and so slow? Shall we hasten to change the tariff laws and then be laggards about making it possible and easy for the country to take advantage of the change? There can be only one answer to that question. We must act now, at whatever sacrifice to ourselves. It is a duty which the circumstances forbid us to postpone. I should be recreant to my deepest convictions of public obligation did I not press it upon you with solemn and urgent insistence.

The principles upon which we should act are also clear. The country has sought and seen its path in this matter within the last few years—sees it more clearly now than it ever saw it before—much more clearly than when the last legislative proposals on the subject were made. We must have a currency, not rigid, as now, but readily, elastically responsive to sound credit, the expanding and contracting credits of everyday transactions, the normal ebb and flow of personal and corporate dealings. Our banking laws must mobilize reserves, must not permit the concentration anywhere in a few hands of the monetary resources of the country or their use for speculative purposes in such volume as to hinder or impede or stand in the way of other more legitimate, more fruitful uses. And the control of the system of banking and of issue which our new laws are to set up must be public, not private; must be vested in the government itself, so that the banks may be the instruments, not the masters, of business and of individual enterprise and initiative.

Committee Ready to Report.

The committees of the congress to which legislation of this character is referred have devoted careful and dispassionate study to the means of accomplishing these objects. They have honored me by consulting me. They are ready to suggest action. I have come to you, as the head of the government and the responsible leader of the party in power, to urge action now, while there is time to serve the country deliberately and as we should, in a clear air of common counsel.

I appeal to you with a deep conviction of duty. I believe that you share this conviction. I therefore appeal to you with confidence. I am at your service without reserve to play my part in any way you may call upon me to play it in this great enterprise of exigent reform which it will dignify and distinguish us to perform and discredit us to neglect.

The Busy Beaver.

Enos A. Mills, the author of "In Beaver World," sums up the beaver's character thus:

As animal life goes, that of the beaver stands among the best. His life is full of industry and is rich in repose. He is home loving and avoids fighting. His lot is cast in poetic places. . . . He is practical, peaceful and industrious. He builds a permanent house and keeps it clean and in repair. Beside it he stores food for the long winter. He takes thought for the morrow. These and other commendable characteristics give him a place of honor among the hordes of homeless, hand to mouth folk of the wild. During the winter he has but little to do except bathe and eat his two or three meals a day from the food he has stored in autumn. Toward spring, when his wild neighbors are lean, hungry and cold, he is fat and comfortable. In the spring he emerges from the house, but then his only work is occasionally to cut a twig for food. In the summer he plays tourist. He visits other colonies and wanders up and down streams, going miles from home. In the late summer or early autumn he returns, makes repairs and harvests his food for the winter.

Sheridan's Double Marriage.

It was in 1857 that the Gretna Green marriages were made illegal. A glance at its registers may yet inspire the novelist of the future. One entry will be sure to puzzle. Twice within a few days occurs the record of the marriage of Richard Brinsley Sheridan to Miss Grant. There was only one R. B. S., only one bride for the same gentleman. The double entries are not the result of any blunder on the part of the Rev. Mr. Vulcan. The parties were really twice married at Gretna Green. Arriving on a Sunday they were duly wedded and sped away to Edinburgh. There, however, Sheridan chanced to glance at a newspaper in which appeared the publications of a lawyer. In those plainly stated was the fact that no contract executed on a Sunday is binding. Clearly, then, their wedding was not legal. Back to Gretna Green they hurried, to be remarried on a week day and leave the dual record to perplex later generations.—St. James' Gazette.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The scarcity of tomatoes which prevailed this year until recently has been greatly relieved the past two or three weeks by the arrival of shipments from many of the neighboring sections. Prices are now about 60 cents to $1 a crate, as compared with $2 and $3 a few months ago. It is likely that from now on the market will remain easy. Consignments come in from Imperial, as well as from regions in the vicinity of Los Angeles and parts of the San Joaquin Valley. A car of Texas stock was also received a few days ago.

A few cars—the first shipment of the season—arrived from the North yesterday. The consignment was made up of 100 lug boxes of the fruit, which was offered at about $1.50 a box. It is not expected that steady shipments will commence until about the middle of July. A large quantity of plums was received, and the price of some varieties was reduced a little. Figs are gradually cheaper, owing to increased receipts. Berries are rather steady as a result of the slow ripening; owing to cool weather. A considerable quantity of pineapples was received and helped to lower the price a little. The eastern call for California lemons has caused the market to firm on all lines.

Cantaloupes are plentiful and declining. Watermelons have dropped a little. Receipts from Imperial are steadily improving. Fresh vegetables were in good supply in most instances. No particular change was recorded in the market. Eggs declined 1 cent yesterday, owing to better supply. It is not likely that there will be any further falling off of importance. Butter and cheese were about steady.

TWO BOYS HAVE MIXED BIKE PARTS

Accused Youngsters Say That They Bought From Boys They Do Not Know

Two boys, aged about 13 and 15, were up against an inquisition last night conducted by Constables Jackson and Heard, as the result of having in their possession parts of a number of stolen bicycles. The boys declared that they had bought the stolen articles from other boys, but since their dates were mixed and their memory failed in most instances to produce the names of those from whom the articles were bought, the officers are of the opinion that the boys themselves are guilty of some of the thievery.

The trouble for the boys broke when they went to a bicycle store and tried to trade an old bicycle, which they had bought some time ago, for a frame. Constables Jackson and Heard then proceeded to the home of the two boys. There they found parts of several bicycles, enough parts to make three or four bicycles. A paint can from which rims had been painted was also found.

The two wheels stolen from District

Attorney West's bicycle on June 8 were in the lot. The boys said they bought those wheels three months ago from another boy. The front wheel and saddle of a bicycle stolen Tuesday night from Mrs. Russ Coleman were in the lot. This bicycle was found in a pit between the two railroads yesterday morning, with one wheel and the saddle gone. The boys said they bought the two articles from a Mexican they did not know.

Last night the father of the boys was called into the questioning, and he expressed absolute faith in the statement of the boys, saying he believed them truthful and honest. He could not believe that they would steal anything. The constables pointed out to him that his boys run around a good deal at nights and the father did not know where they were evenings nor what they were doing. The boys were allowed to go home with their father last night, and the matter will be gone into further today.

BILKAN ALLIES FOUGHT ALL DAY. BULGARS ROUTED

BELGRADE, June 26.—Details of the serious battle yesterday between Servians and Bulgarians in north-west Macedonia, state that the fighting lasted from 1 o'clock in the morning until 6 in the evening, and resulted in the Bulgars being routed. The combined losses are said to be 500 killed.

According to an official statement, the Bulgars made an attack on the Servian positions on the right bank of the Zetovo river, between Kratovo and Kotehana. The attack was repulsed after more serious fighting than any yet reported since the clash between Servians and Bulgars.

Unofficial reports say that about 12,000 Bulgars, accompanied by 500 bomb throwers, attempted to pierce the Servian lines. The Servians immediately brought heavy artillery and machine guns into action and sent a call for reinforcements.

An artillery duel was kept up all through the day and the Servians repeatedly charged the Bulgars at the point of the bayonet, driving many into the river.

The news of the battle has caused tremendous excitement in Belgrade and has embittered the feeling against Bulgaria.

It is understood that in the event of war, Montenegro will make common cause with Servia and would place 10,000 men in the field.

BEISEL RUNS DOWN A THIEF

Heard Man on Front Porch, Turned on Light and Saw Him Leaving With Bike

Jose Espinoza Dropped Wheel and Ran, But Was Quickly Overtaken by Pursuer

Changing to hear a noise on his front porch last night, P. J. Beisel of 218 South Main street turned on the porch light and saw a man making off with Beisel's bicycle. Beisel dashed out the front door, gave chase and captured the thief. The prisoner says his name is Jose Espinoza. He has a crippled foot, and but for that might have escaped for he had a lead on Beisel when the chase began.

It was about 8 o'clock that Beisel heard the noise on his porch. Beisel caught the man at the corner of Main and Pine streets, and held him until Officer Davenport arrived.

Espinoza's trial was set for next Monday at 2 o'clock.
